A LETTER FROM YOUR MINISTRY TEAM

Journeying with Purpose

“Blessed are those whose strength is in you, whose hearts are set on pilgrimage.”

Psalm 84.5

Over recent months there appears to have been a renewed interest in pilgrimage. There have been various programmes on TV with celebrities and lesser known people making pilgrimages to holy sites in the UK and abroad. More recently, Archbishop Sarah completed two pilgrimages — first to Canterbury to be installed as archbishop, followed by a pilgrimage to Rome to meet Pope Francis.

Pilgrimages may sound like hard work — long journeys, heavy backpacks, and deep spiritual reflection — but the journey of two of Jesus’ disciples from Jerusalem to Emmaus offers a refreshing picture of what pilgrimage can be (Luke 24:13–35). Here we find, not so much an epic quest, but an opportunity for reflection after a difficult time.

At the start of their journey, the two disciples are downhearted. They are leaving Jerusalem disappointed and confused after Jesus’ crucifixion, which had taken place only days before. Their high hopes of Israel restored under a new king had been crushed and now they are trying to make sense of reports that Jesus had been seen alive that very morning.

The disciples’ confused start makes their journey highly relatable. Pilgrimages rarely begin with certainty. Instead we may be faced with questions and even doubts. Where will the journey take us, physically and spiritually? The experience of the two disciples shows that we don’t have to feel spiritually “ready” to be on a meaningful journey — we just have to be willing to keep walking.

Then comes the stranger who joins them on the road — unrecognised, but deeply engaged in their story. The disciples explain everything that has happened in the past days ... to Jesus himself, without realizing it. And as they continue along the road, their understanding begins to shift. The stranger helps them see their experiences in new ways, connecting them to God’s bigger story of redemption of the world.

The disciples’ growing understanding reminds us that insights don’t always arrive immediately or in obvious ways. Sometimes, even while meaning is right beside us — even walking with us — it can take time before we notice it. Pilgrimage is rarely about sudden breakthroughs. Rather, like the disciples we too most often come to understand gradually, as step by step things begin to make more sense.

The turning point in the story comes when the three travellers stop for a meal. It is in the simple act of breaking bread that the disciples finally recognise Jesus. After all the walking and talking, the final moment of realisation happens over a simple meal, reminding us that the object of a journey isn’t necessarily to reach some distant destination, but to notice the significance in everyday moments.

What is especially striking is what happens next. Instead of settling down after their long walk, the disciples immediately head back to Jerusalem to share what they've experienced. Their journey doesn't end in rest, but in renewed energy and meaning. It's as if the pilgrimage has quietly reshaped them and given them a new purpose.

With the summer holidays stretching before us, many of us looking forward to longer or shorter breaks, in this country or abroad. As you travel, remember that the journey is as important as, if not more so than, the destinations. May you too find refreshment and new energy and purpose on your adventures.

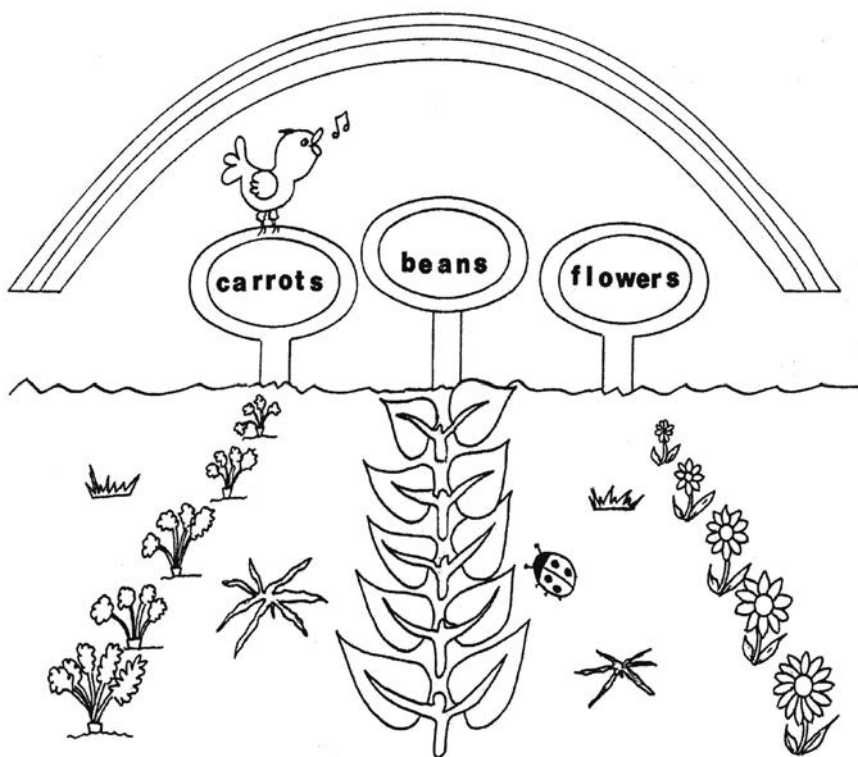

With every blessing,

Revd Dimitri

P.S. Why not join us on our annual Parish Pilgrimage in July as we walk from St John's, Barnby, to St Michael's, Beccles, with a short time of prayer and reflection along the way at each of the churches in our parish — see the Beccles Parish website for details.

"Jamie is well experienced in the roofing business, and his customer friendly and helpful attitude also gives confidence in his work. He'll certainly be my only call for any future repairs needed."

"Once again, J H Roofing Solutions did a great job, despite being hampered by the bad weather we've had recently. They visited the house in advance in order to make sure we were watertight and then completed the work as soon as the weather was dry enough."

I said in my previous review that I would have no hesitation in using J H Roofing again and that remains the case. Jamie and Charlie are professional and pleasant to deal with and do a great job."

WORLINGHAM NEWS

News from Worlingham CEVC Primary School

Music Concert

On Wednesday 6th May, our musicians performed in our annual music concert. The children played their instruments to an incredibly high standard and we were treated to a delightful evening of music.

Year 6 SATS

Congratulations to our Year 6 pupils for their mature and dedicated approach to their SATS assessments during May. Thank you also to the Year 6 staff team for the extra support, and also all staff across the school, for their contributions to their learning over the years.

Helpful Heroes

The EYFS children have enjoyed visits from our local police officer, and a dental nurse, as part of their Helpful Heroes topic. PC Thompson told the children all about his job, and showed them the different equipment that he carries in his car and on his clothes. Kate, the dental nurse, taught the children about how to keep their teeth clean and healthy, and which foods and drinks are good for their smiles.

Sports Tournaments

Year 2 Skittleball Tournament

On Tuesday 5th May, 12 children from Year 2 competed in a Skittleball tournament held at Worlingham Primary, against five other local primary schools. The children showed great teamwork and communication skills, and Worlingham A won the tournament overall. Worlingham B played brilliantly in their matches, scoring points in all games and winning one.

Year 5 Rounders Tournament

On Wednesday 6th May, 8 Year 5 children attended a rounders tournament at the Denes Oval in Lowestoft. The children played a total of five games and only just lost their two opening games. Although they didn't qualify for the final stages, they then went on to play three more games and won all three! The accompanying staff were delighted with how well the children represented the school.

Celebrated Fen Farm cheesemaker Jonny Crickmore comes to Beccles
